Une première impression

Perched majestically 220 meters above the sea, Altura Villas offers a rare opportunity to own a distinguished boutique hotel on the iconic Caldera of Santorini. With breathtaking panoramic views of the volcano and the endless Aegean blue, this property embodies the very essence of the island's timeless allure.

Built in harmony with the traditional Cycladic architectural style, Altura Villas blends authentic island charm with discreet luxury. Three rooms and three suites, each with private balconies, invite you to immerse yourself in breathtaking volcanic views, luxurious bathtubs, and soothing jacuzzis.

An infinity pool seemingly blending into the endless blue, and panoramic lounge areas carved into the landscape, create an atmosphere of pure escape. Here, every moment is an experience, every glance a memory.
Ideally situated, the hotel is just 10 minutes from the cosmopolitan heart of Fira and within a short distance from both the port and airport, ensuring effortless accessibility without compromising the tranquility and exclusivity that define the Caldera experience.

Altura Villas presents a compelling investment proposition, offering immediate operational potential and exceptional prospects for value appreciation. Whether maintained as a boutique retreat or repositioned into a private luxury villa, the property's location and character promise significant returns in one of the world's most sought-after island.
