A Rare Hospitality & Lifestyle Asset in the Heart of Naoussa, Paros
Timeless Cycladic Elegance | Established Hospitality Income | Exceptional Private Estate Potential

Set in the heart of Naoussa, one of the most cosmopolitan and high-demand destinations in the Cyclades, this cycladic cute hotel enjoys a prime position on the island of Paros, renowned for its natural beauty, crystal-clear beaches, and vibrant lifestyle. Naoussa combines traditional Cycladic charm with upscale dining, marina facilities, and a lively international scene, attracting a strong and consistent flow of visitors throughout the season. Paros' excellent accessibility, growing luxury profile, and limited supply of large hospitality assets make this location particularly desirable for both leisure travelers and long-term investors.

The property reflects classic Cycladic architecture, characterized by clean white cubic volumes, harmonious proportions, and seamless integration of indoor and outdoor living spaces. Built with durability and functionality in mind and already operating as a hotel, -but nicely could be used as a family estate -i t offers immediate income potential with minimal repositioning risk. Its established layout, generous capacity, and resort-style amenities support stable returns, while Paros' sustained tourism growth and Naoussa's premium status position this asset as a low-risk investment with strong long-term value preservation and upside potential.

The property spans a total built area of 1,500 sq.m., set on a 2,750 sq.m. plot, within a residential zone. Originally constructed in 1991 and fully renovated in 2006, the hotel combines solid construction with timeless Cycladic charm.
