A first impression

Stunning historic town palace in Alaró with almost 900 m² of garden and around 600 m² of constructed area with views of the mountains.
With its high ceilings and three floors, the town palace offers an enormous amount of space for several living areas, study rooms and master suites.
The huge garden offers unobstructed views of the mountains and complete privacy.
The project foresees the complete renovation of the property, maintaining its original charm paired with the most modern luxury and it will be delivered turnkey. On the first floor we find a large kitchen, dining room, library and access to a wine cellar as well as a large reception area.
The second floor consists of two huge master suites separated by another large living area and a study.
On the third floor there is another large master suite with dressing room and two guest suites, all sharing another large living room.
The outdoor area offers a fantastic summer kitchen with barbecue and various pergolas with seating and dining areas around the large pool, access to a gym and a SPA area. A large guest house with garage is also included.
An absolute gem that should not be missed by those looking for absolute sophistication and simply the best.
On request we will send you further details of the house and the full plans of the project.
