All about the location

Campanet is located in the northeastern interior of the island of Mallorca, known for its famous Campanet Caves. Situated at the foot of the Sierra de Tramuntana, it is very close to the sea, the mountains, the countryside, and other towns of great interest such as Pollensa, Alcudia, Sa Pobla, and Escorca. The village, which rises on a ridge of hills, offers the typical characteristics of a town with a predominance of popular and stately homes. The same hilltop location provides visitors with spectacular views of the central area of Mallorca, the sea, and the mountains. Campanet is one of the most stunning areas of Mallorca in terms of landscape and one of the most outstanding in terms of natural and cultural values. The weekly market is held every Tuesday in the main square.
