A first impression

This exceptional luxury villa in Caldera del Rey spans three levels and offers breathtaking panoramic views over Tenerife's southern coastline and the Atlantic Ocean. A truly unique property, it features five exquisitely designed bedrooms, each thoughtfully created with clean lines, natural materials, and an abundance of daylight to evoke a sense of calm and comfort. The villa includes six elegant bathrooms, four of which are en suite, reflecting a refined standard of comfort and privacy. The living concept is further enhanced by a separate guest apartment – ideal for hosting loved ones or enjoying a private retreat within your own home. Designed with meticulous attention to detail and finished to the highest quality, this villa embodies a perfect harmony between exclusivity and nature. Spacious, open-plan interiors blend seamlessly with outdoor living spaces, while the architectural design masterfully frames the spectacular ocean views – turning each day into a visual delight. This is more than just a house – it's a way of life. A sanctuary where you can breathe deeply, recharge, and greet every morning with a smile.
