All about the location

The small village of Deià, located on the west coast of Mallorca, is one of the most beautiful villages on the island. Perched on a mountain and overlooking the Mediterranean, Deià has been for many years a magnet for famous artists. Deià has a landscape that is part of the World Heritage Site protected by UNESCO, so its nature, culture and traditions are present every day. In the center of the village you will find several restaurants, cafes and small stores with handmade products. One of the few Michelin-starred restaurants on the island, Es Raco d'es Teix offers a unique gastronomic experience in a romantic and cozy setting. Located on the top of a mountain on the main street, it offers Mallorcan cuisine elevated with special care created with ingenuity by German chef Josef Sauerschell.
