A first impression

This four-bedroom apartment is designed for those who want a modern, comfortable home without compromise in one of Budapest's most sought-after neighborhoods in Buda.

The nearly 83 m² of living space is complemented by a terrace of nearly 20 m², which is the perfect spot for shared breakfasts or relaxing at the end of the day. The three separate bedrooms and the bright living room provide an ideal layout for families.

Among the premium technical features of SASAD RESORT SKY are heat-pump-based ceiling cooling and heating, energy-efficient triple-pane windows, electric blinds, a smart home system, and high-quality finishes. The elevator-equipped condominium is being built in a landscaped setting, featuring an underground parking garage and shared green spaces.
