A first impression

This property, tucked away in the historic village of Brendola, offers a fusion of rustic elegance and modern comfort and celebrates traditional architecture, with exposed wooden beams that evoke the warmth of history.

The kitchen, illuminated by natural light streaming in through windows with stunning views of the surrounding landscape, features terracotta tile flooring laid in a charming geometric pattern. White painted wood cabinets add a fresh, modern touch to this space that is both welcoming and functional.

The living room opens to a panoramic view of the garden and distant landscape through French doors that frame the panorama like a living painting. The chosen furnishings, classic and comfortable, invite moments of relaxation and conviviality.

The terraced and well-kept outdoor garden is a peaceful oasis where the natural landscape of the region blends perfectly with the peaceful atmosphere of the village. Strategically placed lounge chairs provide the perfect place to savor the beauty of the Vicenza hills, perhaps with a glass of local wine in hand.

Bedrooms exude a sense of tranquility and refined simplicity, with warm wood floors and large windows that provide a setting for the natural beauty outside. Bathrooms combine traditional and modern elements, such as antique wood and clean, contemporary marble, creating spaces that are both functional and pleasing to the eye.

Overall, this mansion presents itself as the ideal place for those seeking a serene retreat that pays homage to the cultural heritage of its location, with all modern conveniences harmoniously integrated into the interior and exterior design.

All about the location

The house is located in the heart of the historic village of Brendola, a stone's throw from the Church of St. Michael the Archangel.
From this magical place there is a wonderful view, and a quietness typical of other times.

All the town's services can be reached in two minutes by car or for the more sporty with a pleasant walk along the slopes of the hill on which the hamlet is located.

The city of Vicenza is also easily reached thanks to the convenient Vicenza Ovest highway exit: the Ederle and Del Din barracks are therefore only about 20 minutes away.
