A first impression

The home features a rational and well-defined layout, with generously sized rooms and a pleasant flow between the different areas of the house. The entryway leads into the living area, which consists of a spacious living room and a particularly bright dining room, enhanced by numerous windows and flooring that lend elegance and character to the spaces.

The kitchen is separate and spacious, already equipped with a functional and complete layout. From here, as from other rooms in the home, one can appreciate one of the property's main distinguishing features: the large covered terrace, a spacious outdoor area equipped with a fireplace, ideal for outdoor dining, social gatherings, or simply enjoying the outdoors more seamlessly throughout much of the year.

The sleeping area includes several bedrooms, all well-proportioned and easily adaptable to various family, professional, or hospitality needs. The master bedroom stands out for its generous size and hardwood floors, while the other rooms offer considerable flexibility in use.

The apartment also features two bathrooms with windows: one recently updated with contemporary finishes, a large shower, and minimalist fixtures; the second, more traditional, is equipped with a bathtub. Air conditioning systems in various rooms further enhance the home's comfort.

Overall, the property retains solid construction quality, featuring wooden windows and doors, marble and hardwood flooring, and rooms characterized by excellent natural light.

This property is particularly well-suited for families, professionals, or international clients seeking a spacious, well-built, and comfortable rental home that combines generous interior spaces with a substantial outdoor area for daily enjoyment.
