A first impression

In the heart of the city, refined and exclusive solution for professionals or executives who need a temporary solution of medium duration ready to use, without the need to open utilities and complete with all related accessories to start living it from tomorrow.

In Vicenza, in the historic center, near the historic Palladian Church of Santa Corona and the cloisters of the same name, in a completely renovated historic building, we propose an elegant and refined apartment on the ground floor, accessible through the imposing porch of the building.

The environment that welcomes us is extremely refined, thanks to the attention to detail of the furnishings and the combination of modernity with the historicity of the building.

The open space apartment, is composed of different areas that allow you to enjoy in a flexible and elegant every moment of the day: a practical kitchenette with workbench, a dining area, the relaxation area and the sleeping space. The environment is completed by a bathroom with a generously sized shower.

Accessible by a spiral staircase, a practical loft storage area, and in the basement a surprising and exclusive environment, designed and equipped for the detachment from the hectic daily life, with gym and relaxation area, equipped with Jacuzzi and shower of generous size.
